Scholarship Application to Promote Pastoral Education / Training

Educational scholarships are available for members of PSMC churches toward furthering education & training for ministry. Scholarships are matching scholarships with PSMC matching the amount given by the applicant's congregation. Scholarship categories and maximum amounts awarded are as follows: (1) students completing a theological degree at an approved institution – $500 (semester); (2) persons fulfilling educational requirements for ordination – $300; (3) continuing education for pastors – $150 (calendar year). Applications for assistance can be made for Anabaptist colleges, seminaries & universities as well as for continuing education opportunities approved by PSMC. Eligibility of students attending other seminaries will be determined on a case by case basis by the Pastoral Leadership Committee. Theological degree applicants need a supporting letter from a home church pastor, a professor or instructor, and a person in PSMC leadership. Ordination candidates and pastors completing continuing education units need a supporting letter from a leader in their congregation.
